

Fact Sheet
Alliance:VAN

What:

Internet based replacement for traditional VAN mailbox/communications services offering:

- One simple, easy to understand invoice each month
- At least 25% savings over present VAN mailbox fees
- No restrictions on large batches
- No extra fees for interconnects, delimiter conversion, online archival storage of data for one month or misc. other fees
- Ability to add a trading partner at no additional communications expense
- Ability to reduce monthly expense if no longer trading with some partners
- Web-based interface for tracking documents
- Migration is transparent to your trading partners
- Dependable, consistent, friendly and familiar customer service and support

Who:

Presented and supported by GraceBlood LLC, your one stop source for EDI solutions including:

- EDI support
- EDI software
- Mapping services
- Trading partner administration and testing
- Trading partner recruitment
- Standard and custom integrations
- Training
- Managed Services for any-to-any document translation and communications

When:

- Available now, start saving today!
- Existing VAN communications contract probably requires 30 days notice to cancel

How:

- Request a review of current VAN activity from Karen Blood, kblood@graceblood.com / 877.867.8120 x302
- Review the Alliance:VAN Agreement with pricing
- Execute the Agreement by signing and emailing back or faxing to GraceBlood at 443.795.0251
- GraceBlood will:
  - Establish your Alliance:VAN account
  - Change over EDI communications scripts on your EDI PC (remote access is required)
  - Automate EDI document receiving and sending
  - End to end test
  - Provide a sample cancellation document that may be used to cancel service from your previous VAN provider